

DARE TO DO MORE

March 18, 2020

Dear Students,

Here are some additional updates as we transition to distance learning.

Classes

Thursday, March 19, 2020 classes will resume through distance learning; your instructors will reach out to you with details regarding specific your specific courses. They will also discuss their methods and the technology they will use to communicate and teach your distance learning course.

There are many different technologies and methods to support distance learning; Blackboard and Digication/ePortfolio are just two that may be used. If you need technical support, please contact 718-482-6157. Additional resources and distance learning tips are available on our website.

Campus Services

- LaGuardia's Library has gone virtual! Contact the Library 24/7 for assistance at <http://library.laguardia.edu>.
- The LaGuardia CARES food pantry will remain open and has temporarily re-located to the E-Building Lobby and is available Monday & Thursday 9am- 7pm, and Tuesday, Wednesday & Friday 9am-5pm.
- LaGuardia Foundation may be able to assist with financial support; learn more about emergency aid.
- See full list of virtual campus services (offered by email and phone).

You may be contacted by a Peer Advisor or Student Success Mentor, who can offer you additional assistance and support as you transition to distance education. Please contact your advisor if you have other questions through the Ask an Advisor button on My LaGuardia. We will continue to share as much information as we can, as soon as we can, to keep you updated and apprised of any developments. Please continue to check www.laguardia.edu and your LaGuardia email for updates.

If you need assistance, reply to this email or call 718-482-5000.

Sincerely,

Dr. Nireata D. Seals
Interim Provost
